All bids must be received 6 business hours prior to the Auction Session. Your Absentee Bid Form should contain bids for one sale only; the sale name and sale number should appear at the top. Please place your bids as early as possible. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence.

Bidders MUST read through our Terms and Conditions before submitting bids. These terms contain important information regarding our guarantees, billing, shipping, and return policies.

ABSENTEE BIDS

If you are unable to attend the auction in person, and wish to place bids, you may give Goldberg's bid department instructions to bid on your behalf. Our representatives will try to purchase the lot for the lowest price possible, and will not purchase the lot for more than you indicate. This service is free and confidential. Note: Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc. offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale in person, and although we will make every effort, we will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

PLACING ABSENTEE BIDS

To place bids, please use the Absentee Bidder Form provided in this catalog. Be sure to accurately put the lot number and the maximum price you are willing to pay on each lot. Always indicate a top limit or the amount which you would bid if you were attending the auction in person. This amount should not include the buyers commission noted in chapter 16 of the "Terms and Conditions of sale".

MAIL BIDS

When bidding by mail, you frequently purchase lots for less than your maximum bid. On the floor of the auction, bidding will open at 5-10% above the second highest mail bid: We act on your behalf as the highest mail bidder. If the auctioneer recognizes no other bids from the floor, you will be awarded the lot at the opening bid. If bidding proceeds from the floor, the company, acting as your agent, bids in increments over the previous bid. This process is continued until you are awarded the lot or you are outbid by the floor.

LIMIT BIDDERS

If you have a "limit" that you must stay within you must clearly notate this limit on your bid sheet. We will buy your lots as inexpensively as possible but will not exceed your "limit".

"OR BIDS"

Alternative bids should be indicated by using the word "OR" between the lot numbers. Then if your bid on an early lot is successful, we will not continue to bid on any other lots for you. Or, if your early bids are unsuccessful, we will continue to execute bids for alternative lots until a bid is successful. Bids must always be placed in the same order as the lot numbers appear in the catalog.

TELEPHONE BIDS

Bids may be placed by telephone, but are accepted only at Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc. discretion and at the risk of the telephone bidder. We will not be responsible for error or failure to notify the customer in a timely manner during the auction. The telephone bidder must notify the company at least 24 hours prior to auction all lots the bidder is interested in bidding on. The telephone bidder should have a preconceived idea of the top limit that he/she would like to bid prior to auction. In some instances, the representative of the company will request this information at the time of auction. This information assists us in the bidding process by giving us a range to stay active in the bidding. We will not notify the auctioneer of your limit and will buy your lot at the lowest price possible.

INTERNET BIDDING

Internet bidding is available via GoldbergLive. You must be registered with our firm to be able to participate in the internet bidding process. You may view our online catalogues and bid live on our website. Instructions and details are available online. You must be pre-approved to bid via the web. Please note that network down time or internet speed may interfere with bidding. All internet bids are executed LIVE on the floor during auction. We cannot stop our auction due to technical difficulties. This service is free and confidential. Standard 15% premium. To log in or bid, please go to goldbergcoins.com. Click the Log in or Bid button at top left.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

The "top limit" you indicate on your bid form is for the hammer price only. Please keep in mind that a buyer's premium will be added to the successful bid price of each lot you buy and is payable by you, together with the applicable sales tax and shipping charges which is applied to the total cost of your purchase (the total cost includes the buyer's premium).

SUCCESSFUL BIDS

Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Prices realized are posted on our website immediately following each session, and are subject to change until the completion of the sale.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Terms and Conditions of Sale set forth the terms of a public auction sale conducted in Los Angeles, California by Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc., a Nevada corporation, California Auction Bond No. 3595453300 (hereinafter, the "Auctioneer" or "Goldberg"). The Terms and Conditions of sale, the glossary, if any, and all other contents of this catalog are subject to amendment by us by the posting of notices or by oral announcements made during the sale. By participating in any sale, you acknowledge that you are bound by these terms and conditions.

1. This catalog contains the description of property of multiple consignors (the "Consignors"), and may include consignments from Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc., its principals, and affiliated or related companies and their employees, officers, or principals. All persons seeking to bid, whether in person, through an agent or employee, or by telephone, facsimile or mail, must have a catalogue and register to bid at the auction, either by completing a registration card or by completing the bid sheet incorporated into the catalogue. The Purchaser acknowledges that an invoice describing a lot by number incorporates the catalogue by reference.

2. By submitting a bid, whether in person, by mail, by phone, by facsimile or through an employee or agent, the Bidder acknowledges (i) receipt of the catalogue, (ii) that the Bidder has read the Terms and Conditions of Sale and the descriptions for the lots on which they have bid, and (iii) that they agree to adhere to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Acceptance of Bids. Anyone wishing to place bids on lots who will not be attending the live auction must submit their bid(s) at least six (6) business hours prior to the auction session. Bidder is responsible for verifying said bids were received by Goldberg.

3. Each Bidder's determination of it's bid should be based upon its own examination of the item(s), rather than the grade represented in this Catalogue or elsewhere. In any purchase or sale, the value of the item(s) is determined by the price. THE PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS OF VALUATION CONCERNING ANY AND ALL PURCHASES. All Floor Bidders acknowledge that the Auctioneer can decline to accept bids from the a Floor Bidder who is known to have not, in fact, examined the lot prior to the sale.

4. All material shall be sold in separate lots to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer. If any dispute arises during or immediately after the sale of a lot, Auctioneer shall have the right to rescind the lot offered and put the lot up for sale again. In all cases, Auctioneer's decision shall be final. For the protection of any Mail Bidder, no "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc. shall have the right in its sole and absolute discretion to reject any such bid received. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid; a Floor Bidder must bid higher than the highest mail bid to be awarded any lot.

5. Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. No lot will be broken up unless the Auctioneer determines otherwise. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise.

6. All lots may carry a reserve. For purposes of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, a reserve means a confidential price below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or for the account of Goldberg.

7. The Auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller, a Bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile, or any other participant in the sale. The Auctioneer may also bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, by (i) accepting bids from floor agents on behalf of the Consignor, or any affiliated or related company of the Auctioneer or the Consignor, (ii) by placing successive or consecutive bids for any lot, or (iii) by placing bids in response to other Bidders.

8. Auctioneer reserves the right, at his sole discretion, (i) to accept or decline any bid, (ii) to accept or decline any challenge to any bid or bidding increment, (iii) to reduce any mail bid received, (iv) to open the bidding of a lot at any level deemed appropriate by the Auctioneer, and (v) to determine the prevailing bid. Bids will not be knowingly accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age without a parent's written consent containing an acknowledgment that the Terms and Conditions of Sale herein and indicating their agreement to be bound thereby on behalf of the Bidder.

9. It is unlawful and illegal for Bidders to collude, pool, or agree with another bidder to pay less than the fair value for a lot. Bidders in the sale acknowledge that the law provides for substantial penalties in the form of treble damages and attorneys' fees and costs for those who violate these provisions.

10. Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc. reserves the right to withdraw any lot at any time, even after the hammer has fallen, until the Purchaser has taken physical possession of the lot. No Consignor who has registered to bid at the sale (or at any other time unless otherwise provided in the consignment agreement), or any Purchaser or prospective Bidder shall have a right to claim any damages, direct, consequential or otherwise, if a lot is withdrawn, even after the sale.

11. GOLDBERG IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ERRORS IN BIDDING. A Bidder should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is for an amount (plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission that he or she is willing and able to pay. Since other Bidders (by mail, facsimile or other electronic media and in person) will be present, and since a re-offering could damage the momentum of the sale, once the hammer has fallen and the Auctioneer has announced the winning Bidder, such Bidder is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Bidder has made a mistake.

12. THIS IS NOT AN APPROVAL SALE. All lots sold to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer are final. Floor Bidders are encouraged to carefully examine all lots which they are interested in purchasing because all sales of items viewed by Purchasers in advance of a sale, even if the sale is by mail, telephone or facsimile, and all lots bid upon by the Floor Bidders, together with all those presenting Goldberg with a (Continued on next page) resale certificate, out of state resale certificate, or similar evidence that they are acting as a dealer ARE FINAL AND SUCH ITEMS MAY NOT BE RETURNED. If the description of any lot in the catalogue is incorrect, the lot is returnable if returned within five (5) calendar days of receipt, and received by Goldberg no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after the sale date. No return or refund of any auction lot will be considered except by reason of lack of authenticity, unless otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. All lots are sold under the condition that any claims challenging grading, authenticity or methods of manufacture must be made in writing within five (5) calendar days of receipt of material.

All disputed lots must be returned intact as received in their original, sealed and unopened container. Late remittance or removal of any lot from its original container constitutes just cause for revocation of all return privileges for any reason.

13 All prospective Bidders who are allowed the opportunity to examine lots prior to the sale shall personally assume all responsibility for any damage they cause in so doing. Goldberg shall have sole discretion in determining the value of the damage caused, which shall be promptly paid by the prospective Bidder.

14 Title to any lot remains with Consignor, any secured party of the Consignor, or assignee of Consignor, as the case may be, until the lot is paid for in full by Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to the successful Purchaser.

15 It is the Purchaser's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his or her possession. Purchaser assumes any and all RISK OF LOSS once the lot(s) is in Purchaser's possession.

16 BUYER'S COMMISSION OF FIFTEEN PERCENT (15%). will be added to all purchases made by all Purchasers, except Consignors, regardless of Purchaser's affiliation with any group or organization, and will be based upon the total amount of the final bid.

17 Pursuant to a separate agreement with Auctioneer, Consignors or their agents may be permitted to bid on their own lots in the sale and may receive a rebate commission in whole or in part if successful. Under some circumstances, Goldberg may agree with a Consignor (i) not to require the Consignor to pay for all or part of any items bid upon or re purchased by the Consignor; (ii) when or where an advance has been made, to have the Consignor pay an agreed upon difference to Goldberg; or (iii) to allow an offset against other transactions with Consignor. Where the Consignor has re-purchased a lot and the lot is either returned to the Consignor or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in accordance with the Consignor's direction, or pursuant to contractual agreement, Goldberg reserves the right to so note in the prices realized or to omit a price from the price realized. Every Consignor who registers to bid in the sale, whether to "protect" a lot, or for any other purpose, agrees to all other Terms and Conditions of Sale per this agreement.

18 Lots must be paid for within 14 days of receipt of invoice or delivery. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, auction sales are strictly cash above $2,500.00 in U.S. Funds payable through a bank in the United States. Contact Goldberg for wiring instructions before sending a wire. Goldberg reserves the right to decline to release lots for which funds have not yet cleared. Credit card (Visa & Mastercard only) purchases will be accepted on totals not exceeding $5,000. On any cash transaction or series of transaction exceeding $10,000, Treasury Form 8300 may be filed.

19 Purchaser agrees to promptly pay, on demand, any sales tax, or any other tax, if required by law to be collected, postage, handling, and shipping insurance plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission and any other taxes required by law to be charged or collected, together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed.

20 Purchaser grants to Goldberg or its assigns the right to offset any sums due, or found to be due Purchaser by Goldberg, and to make such offset from any past, subsequent or future consignment, or items acquired by Purchaser in possession or control of Goldberg or from any sums due to Purchaser by Goldberg. Purchaser further grants Goldberg a purchase money security interest in such sums or items to the extent applicable, and agrees to execute such documents as may be reasonably necessary to grant Goldberg such security interest. Purchaser agrees that Goldberg and its assigns shall be a secured party with respect to items bought by Purchaser and in the possession of Goldberg, to the extent of the maximum indebtedness, plus all accrued expenses, until the indebtedness is paid.

21 By bidding in this sale, Purchaser personally and unconditionally guarantees payment. If the Purchaser is a corporation, the officers, directors, and principals of the corporation hereby agree to personally and unconditionally guarantee payment as part of the corporation's agreement to bid. The authorized representative of any corporate Purchaser who is present at the sale shall provide Goldberg or its agent, prior to the commencement of the bidding (or at the time of registration), with a statement signed by each principal, director and officer that they each personally and unconditionally guarantee any payment due Goldberg.

22 No bids will be accepted from Floor Bidders and Mail Bidders who have not previously established credit with Goldberg unless they first (i) furnish satisfactory credit references or (ii) deposit at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bids for that session(s), or such other amounts as Goldberg may require, in its sole and absolute discretion. Any deposits made pursuant to this paragraph will be applied to such Bidders purchases. Any unused portion of such deposit will be promptly refunded upon clearance of the funds.

23 On any accounts past due, Goldberg reserves the right to extend credit and impose periodic charges, pursuant to these Terms and Conditions of Sale or as set forth in the Purchaser's invoice. If the auction invoice is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will earn interest at the rate of one-and-one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month until paid. In the event this interest rate exceeds the interest permitted by law, the same shall be adjusted to the maximum rate permitted by law. Goldberg further reserves the right to resell the merchandise, or to have an affiliated or related company do so. Purchaser agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other collection costs incurred by Goldberg or any affiliated or related company to collect past due invoices, including reasonable costs of any resale of the merchandise. Purchaser also agrees to pay the difference between the resale price and any previous disbursements. Money realized from the resale shall be applied as follows: (i) to pay sums due to the consignor, (ii) to pay Goldberg standard commissions and fees for the resale, (iii) to pay Goldberg any sums owed to it by purchaser, and the remainder, if any, will be paid to the Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to assign its interest to any third party.

24 Goldberg may at its sole and absolute discretion, make loans or advances to Consignors and/or prospective Purchasers.

25 The Auctioneer may bid for his or its own account at any auction (even though it may not be required to pay a Buyer's Commission, or other charges that other Purchasers may be required to pay) and may have access to information concerning (Continued on next page)

the lots and items contained therein that is not otherwise available to the public Any conflict of interest or claim of competitive advantage resulting therefrom is expressly waived by all participants in the sale

26 If a dispute arises concerning ownership of a lot that has been bid upon, Goldberg reserves the right to commence a statutory interpleader proceeding at the expense of the Consignor and successful Purchaser and any other applicable party, and in such event Goldbergs shall be entitled to its reasonable attorney's fees and costs

27 In the event of a successful challenge to the title to any goods purchased, Goldberg agrees to reimburse any Purchaser in an amount equal to the successful bid price actually paid by Purchaser at auction plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid, in full and complete satisfaction of all claims, such reimbursement once tendered by Goldberg, relieves and releases Goldberg from any responsibility whatsoever to the Purchaser, even if the instrument is not cashed or is returned.

28 Goldberg reserves the right to postpone the auction sale or any session thereof for a reasonable period of time for any reason whatsoever, and no Bidder or prospective Bidder shall have any claim as a result thereof including consequential damages.

Any attempt to assign or transfer any such rights shall be absolutely void and unenforceable. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred on any Bidder or Purchaser by these Terms and Conditions of Sale and terms of warranty. "Purchaser" shall mean the original Purchaser of the property from Goldberg and not any subsequent owner or other person who may acquire or have acquired an interest therein. If Purchaser is an agent, the agency must be disclosed in writing to Goldberg prior to the time of sale, otherwise the benefits of the warranty shall be limited to the agent and not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

35 If the Purchaser fails to comply with one or more of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, then in addition to all other remedies which it may have at law or in equity, Goldberg may at its sole option, either (a) cancel the sale, retaining all payments made by Purchaser as liquidated damages, it being recognized that actual damages may be speculative or difficult to compute, or (b) sell some or all of the property and (some or all other property of the Purchaser held by Goldberg, if Goldberg deems necessary), in a quantity sufficient in the opinion of Goldberg to satisfy the indebtedness, plus all accrued charges. If a lot or item is not paid for, and is sold by Goldberg for Purchaser's account, in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code, Goldberg shall not be required to account to the Purchaser for any excess proceeds. Purchaser shall remain liable to Goldberg if the proceeds of such sale or sales is insufficient to cover the indebtedness. If other property of Purchaser is also sold, any excess of proceeds will be remitted to the Purchaser after first deducting the expenses set forth above. If Purchaser fails to remit sums due to Goldberg, Purchaser grants to Goldberg a lien with respect to such sum, with interest to accrue thereon at the legal rate, until actually paid, which lien shall apply against any property of Purchaser, including any future goods of Purchaser coming into possession of Goldberg. To the extent permitted by law, Purchaser hereby waives all the requirements of notice, advertisement and disposition of proceeds required by law.

Purchaser further agrees that venue shall be in the Superior Court of Los Angeles, in the State of California.

38 ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS
The Bidder/Purchaser shall pay to Goldberg all costs and expenses of collection of amounts due herein, or to otherwise enforce any or all provisions of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the subject matter of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, or any other agreement entered into with Goldberg, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred before legal action, if any, is commenced. The Bidder/Purchaser further agrees that in any litigation or other proceeding based upon, arising out of or related to these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the Bidder/Purchaser shall pay to Goldberg its attorney fees and other expenses and costs incurred in connection with the litigation or other proceeding if Goldberg is the prevailing party.

39 If any section of these Terms and Conditions of Sale or any term or provision of any section is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining sections or terms and provisions of a section shall continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way. AS STATED IN THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE Certain lots may be reserved by the Consignor. If the Auctioneer identifies a Consignor bidding on his own property, an announcement will be made that the Consignor is now bidding. If the Consignor places a bid in the mail bid book and is successful, the Auctioneer will announce that the lot has been passed.

40 These Terms and Conditions contain the entire agreement and understanding between Goldberg and Bidder concerning the auction and any items bid on or purchased at the auction. Bidder acknowledges that Goldberg has not made any promises, representations or warranty to bidder, not contained herein concerning the auction and any items bid on or purchased at the auction. ■

814 THE NUMISMATIST, November, 1935

MOST REMARKABLE COLLECTION OF

UNITED STATES HALF CENTS

FORMED BY

MR. HOWARD NEWCOMB,

Of Detroit, Mich.

Has just been purchased by me and added to my large stock of fine coins.

The collection contains the four varieties of 1793, all uncirculated; the 1796 with pole, in PROOF!! Three varieties of 1811, one of which is unc. and another a Proof! Five varieties of 1795, all uncirculated! Three varieties of 1831, one of which is not in Gilbert, and all three are proofs! ALL rare dates.

Total of 96 different dates and varieties, mostly in proof, others, with three or four exceptions, uncirculated.

Inquiries from serious collectors invited.

I don't have "everything" in coins, because I sell lots of 'em, but I'd be happy to quote you on anything you may want and which I may have.

And remember—believe it or not—I am more anxious to buy than to sell! Write me.

B. MAX MEHL
NUMISMATIST
FORT WORTH TEXAS

Largest Numismatic Establishment in America.
Established 30 Years. Capital $250,000.00.
Collections purchased for cash up to any value or sold at Auction on liberal terms and cash advanced without interest.

This announcement appeared in the November 1935 issue of The Numismatist. Legendary dealer B. Max Mehl sold the remarkable half cent collection formed by Howard Rounds Newcomb in its entirety to "Colonel" Edward H. R. Green that same year. Mr. Green passed away in June of 1936. The Green collection was purchased from his estate by Burdette G. Johnson and Eric P. Newman in April 1943. Forty-two of the ninety-six Newcomb-Green half cents are in the Missouri Cabinet.

The Missouri Cabinet

The Missouri Cabinet is the result of collaboration between Mr. R. Tettenhorst (Tett) and the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society (EPNNES). It has been assembled by Tett over a period of more than 40 years. The name "Missouri Cabinet" was suggested for what was then Tett's half cent collection by Walter Breen when he visited St. Louis to take photographs of the coins for his book, Walter Breen's Encyclopedia of United States Half Cents 1793-1857. This collection included much of the Showers collection, as well as specimens from many other fine collections.

EPNNES is a Missouri not-for-profit corporation which received its half cents from two sources. Eric Newman donated all of his half cents to EPNNES. Of special interest were those that came from the collection of Colonel Edward H. R. Green. Tett donated a substantial number of his half cents to EPNNES while retaining others. The details of how each half cent offered here came to the Missouri Cabinet are contained in its provenance. Tett has had custody of all the Missouri Cabinet half cents and managed the continued improvements to its collection.

This arrangement had a number of favorable results. It brought the Colonel Green half cents and the Brand proof-like 1811 into the Missouri Cabinet, which substantially improved the collection. It also allowed for all of the half cents to be shown at the Half Cent Happenings at the annual meeting of Early American Coppers, Inc., and to interested half cent collectors who visited St. Louis from time to time. Further, now that the Missouri Cabinet is being auctioned, it will provide substantial funds for philanthropic purposes while preserving all of its historic half cents for acquisition by other individual collectors.

EPNNES will use all the proceeds from the sale of its half cents for the benefit of not-for-profit institutions for public purposes and also for supplementing the Society's own museum operations and scholarly research efforts.

The Missouri Cabinet is the only collection of half cents ever formed which contains every variety of half cent struck for circulation. In addition, it is the only collection to contain every variety of half cent struck only in proof. The Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS) has certified each coin in the collection, and they rank the Missouri Cabinet #1 in all eight registry categories applicable to half cents.

Welcome to an historic event.

R. Tettenhorst & Eric P. Newman

The Newcomb-Green 1793 Cohen-1

1793 C-1 R3+. PCGS graded MS-65 Brown. Choice glossy light brown with generous traces of faded mint color peeking through in protected areas, especially on the reverse. The surfaces are flawless except for a few microscopic hairlines in the field near the dentils off the chin and some of the usual tiny planchet chips that did not completely strike out on the cheek and in the fields on both sides. The best identifying mark on this piece is a diagonal planchet chip under the 00 in the denominator. MDS, Manley state 2.0, as listed in The Half Cent Die State Book 1793-1857 by Ronald P. Manley, Ph.D. (the "Manley book"), with parallel die rust streaks in the field before the portrait. The fields display a bit of reflectivity where not affected by the die rust, especially on the reverse. The obverse is slightly misaligned to K-10 while the reverse is off center a bit to K-6, but the border beads are complete and bold around both sides. A beautiful half cent that offers outstanding eye appeal. Our grade is MS63+, very close to MS64. Arguably the finest known of what is considered to be the first die variety of half cent struck at the new the US Mint in July 1793. Both sides are plated on page 71 in Walter Breen's Encyclopedia of United States Half Cents 1793-1857 (the "Breen encyclopedia") to illustrate his die state II and listed first in the Breen/Hanson condition census shown on that same page. Plated on page 2 of the second edition of American Half Cents the "Little Half Sisters" by Roger S. Cohen, Jr. (the "Cohen book") to illustrate the variety. Weight 103.5 grains. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; the only MS attributed and graded by PCGS. (PCGS # 35003)

1793 C-1 R3+. PCGS graded VF-35 Brown. Blundered Edge. Slightly sharper with traces of very light roughness mixed with fine reddish patina in the fields and protected areas on the lower half of the obverse. Otherwise the planchet is a nice glossy medium brown with smooth, attractive surfaces except for a couple small planchet voids in the field off the lowest curl and at the L in LIBERTY, as struck. Scarce LDS, Manley state 3.0, with a strong rim cud break over F-AME. Examples with the cud break seldom come in high grades, a fact noted by Breen on page 71 in his encyclopedia. In addition, the edge lettering is blundered with the T in TWO where the R in DOLLAR should be resulting in an edge reading DOLLATWO HUNDRED FOR A. Edge blunders such as this occurred when the operator of the Castaing machine failed to reset the device to the proper starting (null) position before adding the edge letters. Our grade is VF20. Weight 104.6 grains. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; 3 finer for the die variety. (PCGS # 35003)

1793 C-2 R3. PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. Attractive glossy chocolate brown with hints of steel blue overtone in protected areas of the obverse. This piece offers excellent eye appeal with just a hint of friction on the highest points of the design. The notable defects are a microscopic planchet lamination in the field right of the bottom edge of the cap and a very thin diagonal planchet fissure slanting through the 3 in the date to the field before the mouth where it fades out. The only contact marks worthy of mention are a thin nick above IB in LIBERTY, a faint diagonal scratch through the upper lip, and another from close above the 3 to the lowest curl. A piece with excellent eye appeal in spite of the minor imperfections. Late die state with extensive die rust in the obverse fields. The reverse is rotated 45 degrees clockwise from a perfect head-to-foot die orientation, which is not uncommon for this variety. The obverse die is very slightly misaligned to K-5.5 while the reverse is properly centered on the planchet. Our grade is AU50+. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; the only MS graded for the die variety. (PCGS # 35006)

An outstanding 1793 Half Cent that offers superb eye appeal. The only defects, and they are trivial, are a very shallow planchet flake near the dentils right of the top of the cap and a few microscopic planchet chips in the field behind the portrait (all as struck), plus a small rim nick at the A in STATES. MDS showing fine die rust at TES in STATES into the upper right part of the wreath. Both sides are centered on the planchet. This piece is extensively plated in the Breen encyclopedia, including on page 43 to illustrate the uncirculated grade, page 68 to show the edge lettering, page 76 where the large photos illustrate the Cohen-3 die variety, and at the top of the first color plate at the back of the book. Walter Breen had access to most of the finest pieces available, and it is easy to see why he chose this piece for his color plate. Our grade is MS64. Weight 103.3 grains. 1793 C-4 R3. PCGS graded MS-66 Brown, CAC Approved. Lustrous frosty steel brown with attractive bluish steel overtones. Underlying faded mint red shows in protected areas on both sides. This piece offers superb eye appeal. The Breen encyclopedia describes it using phrases such as "Fully lustrous" and "magnificent full cartwheel." The only defect is an extremely faint horizontal pre-striking hairline in the planchet passing from the tip of the second curl below the cap to the border beads at the right. Sharply struck MDS, Manley state 2.0, with a tiny rust lump on top of the 7. The reverse is a flawless gem and very sharply struck showing the veins in every leaf. The obverse is nicely centered on the planchet but the reverse is noticeably off center to K-4 leaving some of the border beads close to the edge. Plated in the Breen encyclopedia to illustrate the variety (the large photos on page 78) and listed in the Breen/Hanson condition census on the following page. 1794 C-1a Large Edge Letters R3 PCGS graded MS64+ Brown. Choice glossy bluish steel brown with generous traces of faded mint red in protected areas on both sides. No spots, stains, or contact marks. The only defects are the microscopic planchet chips found on these early half cents, and on this example they are mostly in the field before the portrait. In addition there is a shallow planchet flake that affects the right side of E in LIBERTY, and this is the best identifying mark for the obverse. The reverse shows a short arc of impressed dentils near the leaves over HALF, also as struck, suggesting a possible undertype strike. MDS, Manley state 2.0, with minor die clashmarks on both sides. The repunching on the 179 is obvious. Our grade is MS63. Tied for finest known honors, and this is the first example listed in the Breen/Hanson condition census for the variety. 1794 C-6a Small Edge Letters R5+. PCGS graded EF-40 Brown, CAC Approved. Glossy steel brown and chocolate with excellent eye appeal for the grade. Some of the details are consistent with a higher grade, but the strike is a bit uneven with the upper edge of the obverse and lower part of the reverse softly impressed relative to the rest of the coin. The planchet appears too be normal (not beveled) so the dies must have been out of axial alignment (the die faces not perfectly parallel). The notable defects are a faint vertical hairline in the field before the portrait, a small rim nick at AM, and a thin planchet void in the dentils over ED (as struck). Our grade is VF20. Appears as if it was lightly abraded with a stiff brush, but the eye appeal is still nice for the grade. Slightly glossy light steel brown. There are very few signs of contact (other than the brush lines). A small pinprick just off the tip of the left wreath stem and a small nick under the left ribbon end are the notable marks. The strike was strong and well balanced but very slightly off center to K-7.5. Strong die clashmarks show around the portrait. Weight 103.6 grains. 1794 C-7 R5. PCGS graded MS-67 Red & Brown, CAC Approved. Lustrous mint red mellowing to light steel brown, at least a third of the original color remaining. The fields are reflective and the eye appeal is amazing. This is a true "WOW!" coin. The hair wave left of the ear is especially high on this die, which was used to strike the C-7, 8, and 9 die varieties, and it is often referred to as the "High Relief Head" type. And because the designs are raised well above the rims they wore down rapidly. But on this sharply-struck piece the highest wave left of the ear retains its intended character, coming to a prominent peak well above the rest of the hair as the engraver intended. (Stacking these would have presented quite a challenge.) No defects and virtually unimprovable in every respect. A tiny planchet chip hidden in the dentils right of the Y in LIBERTY is the best identifying mark, but it is inconsequential. We believe this is the finest obtainable 1794 half cent of any variety (a comparable 1794 C-7 is impounded in the British Museum, but a recent photograph indicates it retains little if any mint color and the luster is subdued by a thin layer of oxidation creating a chestnut brown tone). Current PCGS records show one other early half cent graded as MS67RB (a 1796 C-1 No Pole), which makes this piece tied for the finest graded early half cent (1793-1797). An undisputed highlight of this premier collection of half cents. This is the 1794 shown in Breen's color plate at the back of his encyclopedia and on pages 87 (to illustrate the "High Relief Head" and "Cent Type Reverse"), 88 (to show the Large Edge Letters), 114 (to illustrate the variety), and on that same page for his die state I. This piece is also plated on page 14 in Cohen's second edition. MDS, Manley die state 2.0 early. Our grade is MS67. Struck on a thick planchet, possibly from a cut-down spoiled cent, weighing 113.50 grains (which is noted on the PCGS label). The beveled edge at the bottom of the reverse is consistent with a planchet that was cut from a spoiled large cent, but there is no evidence of underlying cent design that could confirm this assessment. This is the only example of the die variety known to us struck on a thick planchet, and it is the only thick-planchet example PCGS has noted as well (although PCGS did not assign it a different coin number like they do for the thick planchet versions of the 1795 C-5 and C-6 varieties). 1795 C-5b No Pole with Thick Planchet R4 PCGS "Genuine" Unc Details, Planchet Flaw. Frosty light steel brown and tan with lustrous bluish steel toning in protected areas of the reverse. The obverse fields are slightly reflective but both sides are covered with microscopic planchet chips, as struck. The only notable defects are an obvious planchet crack from K-7 to the 17 and another at the opposing area from the rim through the E in STATES down to the upper leaf on the right side of the wreath, also as minted. Our grade is MS60. We understand the reluctance of any grading service to grade a piece with an obvious planchet flaw, but if it left the mint that way, then the term "Mint State" seems to apply. Unfortunately planchet cracks are a common occurrence on the thick planchet versions of the 1795 C-5 and C-6 varieties. The thick planchets appear to have been harder and more brittle than normal, and problem-free examples are especially rare. As Breen states on page 150 in his encyclopedia, "These are crude, often defective with cracks, splits, and chips, and are thicker than normal. Weight range from 105.7 grains to 123 grains." The weight of this example is 105.8 grains. Listed in the condition census on page 151 of the Breen encyclopedia. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are noted on the PCGS label. 1795 C-5b No Pole with Thick Planchet R4. PCGS graded EF-45 Brown, CAC Approved. Glossy light olive and chocolate with a hint of bluish steel overtone. The surfaces are mostly smooth and attractive but there are traces of microscopic roughness on both sides. No verdigris, and the only marks visible without the aid of a glass are three impressions on the neck that appear to be from the dentils of an off-center large cent. The 5 in the date is softly impressed, as usual on the thick planchet variety. HALF CENT is also weak, as usual due to the die failure on that side, but it remains readable. 1795 C-5b No Pole with Thick Planchet R4. PCGS graded AU-55 Brown. Double Planchet Clip. Glossy light steel brown with subtle overtones of bluish steel on both sides. Faint hints of very faded mint color can be found in some of the protected areas. The only defects are some of the usual tiny planchet chips covering the fields on both sides, as struck. Struck on a thick planchet, most likely made from a spoiled large cent (or possibly scrap left behind after cutting large cent planchets). There are mint-made curved planchet clips extending to the dentil roots at K-1 to K-2 and K-4 to K-5. The curve of the clips suggests they were made with a large cent cutter rather than from a half cent cutter, but that is uncertain since the arcs are relatively small. Our grade is EF45. Weight 108.6 grains (obviously heavy when compared to the 84.0-grain standard in spite of the weight lost to the two clips). Highly lustrous steel brown with faded mint red covering the protected areas on the obverse and 20% of the reverse. A solid gem half cent except for a few minor contact marks on the obverse. There are three diagonal hairline scratches on the cap extending into the field to the left, a couple of tiny pinpricks hidden in the dentils left of the cap, and a microscopic hairline on the cheek. LDS, Manley state 2.0. The fields are slightly reflective and the eye appeal is exceptional. The reverse is a flawless gem. Struck over a TAL cent with clear undertype visible below the 179 in the date. Illustrated on the color plate at the end of the Breen encyclopedia and on page 23 of the second edition of the Cohen reference to show his die state II, and listed in Breen's census on page 156. Unique Thick Planchet 1796 with Pole

1796 C-2 With Pole on Thick Planchet PCGS "Genuine" VF Details, Damage or Tooling. Sharpness VF25 but there is a dull, relatively strong scratch from the forehead to the bottom of the neck. The planchet is covered with microscopic granularity but there is no verdigris. The planchet has two small cracks (narrow splits in the planchet at the edge) under the 179, as struck. Slightly glossy chocolate and olive brown. The date is strong and the legends are complete. Struck a bit off center to K-1. The edge is beveled from K-6 to K-8 on the obverse and at the corresponding part of the reverse over TES OF. Struck on a heavy planchet weighing 105.09 grains versus the standard weight of 84.0 grains (the thick planchet and heavy weight are noted on the PCGS label). Either this planchet was cut out of thick strip rolled for large cents or the planchet was made from a spoiled large cent. The tiny splits on the edge under the date suggest a spoiled large cent cut down for a half cent. That is because "strike hardening" tends to make a planchet brittle and susceptible to splitting when struck again. Tiny splits at the edge are found quite often on the 1795 C-5b and C-6b thick planchet variants, and this 1796 appears to be on a similar planchet. Regardless of the exact source of the planchet, this is the only 1796 half cent known to us that was struck on a thick planchet, and it is the only example certified as such by PCGS (although PCGS noted the heavy weight on their label, they did not assign it a different coin number for registry purposes). Finest 1796 Edwards Copy

96 Edwards Copy Kenny-1 Rarity 7- PCGS graded 67 Red & Brown. Choice highly lustrous bluish steel brown h faded red covering the protected areas, about 20% of the ginal color remaining. The only defects, and they are trivial, a small spot of reddish brown toning in the field over the tip the pole and a tiny, dull struck-through line at the dentils left the lower curls, as struck. Our grade is MS66. An outstand- example, probably the finest known. Weight 92.4 grains. TE: The Edwards copies of the 1796 half cent were struck ng hand-made dies on rolled copper planchets that are a bit nner than the genuine version. The workmanship is of good ality and the resulting design is a fairly accurate representation the genuine article. These were struck sometime prior to 1865 Dr. Frank Smith Edwards of New York, and the first auction earance came in 1866. After the death of Dr. Edwards in 1865, ward Cogan wrote that he had destroyed the dies and all but of the remaining specimens. Dr. Edwards' collection was sold an auction conducted by Bangs, Merwin & Company in Octo- 1865, and none of these copies was included in that sale. The t appearance of one of his copies in an auction occurred in 66. These copies are highly sought and seldom appear for sale, the reported "mintage" of 12 specimens appears to accurately resent the number of examples that escaped destruction, al- ough we do not know how many were actually struck. Pres- ly we can trace 11 examples, and that total has not changed in ite a few years. They are mentioned briefly in a note following 1796 half cents on page 92 in the "Redbook." 1796 Edwards Copy Possibly in Brass

1796 Edwards Copy Kenny-1 Rarity 7- (Rarity 8 in Brass). PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. Frosty light greenish olive brown with small, subtle splashes of reddish chocolate toning in the field off the chin and traces of lighter brown and tan in protected areas of the reverse. Although these normally come on copper planchets, this example looks more like brass. A tiny spot of darker olive toning over the 9 in the date is the best identifying mark. The 7 and 9 in the date are clearly repunched and the entire piece is sharply struck. Our grade is MS60. The Edwards copies or "counterfeits" were made by Dr. Frank Smith Edwards of New York sometime prior to his death in 1865. The dies were handmade and the workmanship is of good quality. The resulting design is a fairly accurate representation of the genuine article, but it is far from perfect. The planchets used for these copies were cut from rolled copper and are a bit thinner than the genuine version. (See the preceding lot for a discussion of the "mintage" and resulting rarity of these pieces.) This cataloger has seen 8 of the known examples, and several of the planchets are slightly out-of-round, including the example offered here. But this is the only one that appears to be struck in brass (or at least on a brassy-looking planchet). A nice example of this extremely rare and famous copy. Weight 89.5 grains. 1797 C-3a Low Head with Plain Edge R3. PCGS graded AU-53 Brown. Struck over a Spoiled 1798 S-164 Large Cent. Very attractive glossy bluish steel brown. The surfaces are choice, the only defects being a tiny chip under the E in LIBERTY and a thin nick right of the cap. Struck over an off-center 1798 S-164 large cent. The large cent date is bold and covers the lower portion of the half cent portrait. The lower part of the cent reverse covers much of the right side of the half cent reverse. The cent undertype is very strong and was not affected much by the half cent strike. Breen speculates this was because the cut-down planchet was not annealed prior to striking the half cent. The areas showing the cent impression were stress-hardened and therefore less receptive to the half cent strike. In any event, the end result is a fantastic mint error. EDS, Manley state 1.0. 1797 C-3c R7- Low Head with Gripped Edge PCGS graded AG3. The obverse is G5 while the reverse is only Fair-2 at best. Lightly cleaned, now recolored a glossy light bluish steel brown. The only notable mark is a light scratch from the I in UNITED to the T in CENT. The date is strong. The grip marks are not strong and many of them are missing, but enough are visible to make the attribution possible and the ones that remain line up with clearer ones on higher grade examples. The attribution was confirmed by Roger Cohen, and this example is listed by Breen in his 1983 encyclopedia (page 191) as one of only seven confirmed by him (with three additional pieces claimed but unverified at that time). The frosty surfaces are nearly flawless and the eye appeal is outstanding for the grade. The only imperfections are a microscopic planchet chip on the rim at the top of the reverse and an even smaller chip just inside the border beads over the left side of the O in OF, both as struck, plus a hint of reddish carbon at the right side of the first A in AMERICA. Late die state with obvious fine die rust evident on both sides. The reverse is rotated 45 degrees CW relative to a normal head-to-foot die orientation, a condition that is often found on this variety. Both sides are rather well centered on the planchet leaving ample borders outside the ring of beads. Our grade is MS60 Choice. The reverse of this half cent was plated in the Ebenezer Gilbert’s 1916 reference “”The United States Half Cents”” (Plate 1, the 1793 “”1-3”” reverse), and both sides were plated in the 1914 ANS Exhibition of United States and Colonial Coins Catalog (Plate 23, the Crosby 2-A provided by Hillyer Ryder). 1811 C-1 R4. PCGS graded MS-66 Red & Brown, CAC Approved. Beautiful electric blue steel with mint red covering 20% of the obverse, 10% of the reverse. Virtually flawless with stunning eye appeal, a highlight of this superb collection. The only identifying marks are a barely visible hairline from star 2 to the field right of star 6 and a speck of darker toning midway between the F in OF and adjacent A. The fields are smooth and reflective with moderately deep mirrors on the obverse and shallow mirrors on the reverse, where those fields are covered with very fine nearly vertical die polishing lines that restrict the reflectivity. Identical die state to the Norweb proof (or specimen strike), but this example has better color and far fewer defects than the Norweb piece (Bowers & Merena 10/12/1987 67). However, the Norweb example had a slightly sharper strike on the upper stars and lower part of the wreath. These "unofficial restrikes" are listed on page 94 in the "Redbook." were produced outside the mint sometime before 1859 by (or for) Joseph J. Mickley. He used old dies that had sold by the mint for scrap metal decades after their initial use. The obverse die is from the 1811 Cohen-2 variety the reverse is from the 1802 C-2 marriage. Both dies were heavily rusted at this point but were cleaned up and to strike about a dozen examples to satisfy collector demand (similar to what was done to produce the 1804 and "restrike" large cents). The dies were later sold in the Mickley estate sale conducted in 1878, and the buyer of the was none other than the U.S. Mint (who obviously came to recognize their earlier error of selling dies that had been properly defaced). Our grade is MS65 (although some, including Breen, have called them "Proof" strikes, e though the dies are far from "Proof" quality). It doesn't really matter. These "defects" are insignificant but can help identify this piece E-MDS, Manley state 2.0 early. Die polishing has removed the clashmarks from the obverse but the repunching is st clear on star 7. The obverse fields are prooflike with moderately deep mirrors and the reverse fields are slightly prooflike although those mirrors are not as deep. Outstanding eye appeal, once thought to be a proof strike. This is the final proof listed in the Breen/Hanson census on page 342 in the Breen reference. Wa ter Breen claimed that the United States Mint experimented with the new "bronzed" finish, apparently first used b Bolton & Watt's Soho Mint in Birmingham, England, when samples of the bronzing powder were sent to our m by the Soho Mint (see page 49 in Walter Breen's Encyclopedia of United States and Colonial Proof Coins 1722-197 In addition to the two 1831 Original Bronzed Proof Half Cents, a very limited number of proof large cents were al bronzed by the mint (several of the 1829 Newcomb 6 and one of the 1834 Newcomb-7 Proof-Only strikes), apparen ly in a process that involved coating a normal planchet with bronzing powder before striking. Breen speculated th the U.S. Mint might have struck a few 1829 Bronzed Proof Half Cents as well, but he never saw one. So if you wa a Bronzed Proof large cent, you have choices. Extremely Rare 1841 First Restrike

154

1841 First Restrike Proof Breen 1-B R7+ PCGS graded PR65 Red & Brown. Reverse of 1856. The obverse is mint red and dark bluish steel, about a third of the red remaining. The reverse is chocolate brown with blue steel and sea-green overtones. The obverse fields are highly reflective with deep mirrors while the reverse fields are not as reflective, those mirrors moderately deep at best. There is a carbon spot in the field close before the lips, another over star 10, and one over star 11. Otherwise this piece is nearly flawless. Excellent eye appeal. Our grade is Proof-63. This is one of the rarest of the First Restrike Proofs, perhaps because the Mint produced so many of the 1841 Original Proofs and did not need to supplement their supply. Weight 83.1 grains. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; the only RB graded. (PCGS # 35349)

Estimated Value $15,000-UP

1841 Second Restrike Proof Breen 1-C R6+ PCGS graded PR66+ Brown, CAC Approved. Reverse of 1840. Beautiful bluish steel brown with hints of iridescent rose in protected areas of the obverse. The fields are nicely reflective with moderate to deep mirrors on the obverse, the reverse not quite as reflective as the obverse but still very attractive. There is a tiny spot of lighter toning right of star 3, another left of that star, and one in the field off the lower lip. This is the Breen plate coin for the variety. Weight 77.5 grains, consistent with Breen's series IV strikes from the early die state. Our grade is Proof-64. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; finest graded. (PCGS # 35351)

1841 Second Restrike Proof Breen 1-C R6+ PCGS graded PR65+ Brown, CAC Approved. Reverse of 1840. Bluish steel with underlying faded mint red, a third of the red remaining on the obverse, 20% on the reverse. The fields are moderately reflective on both sides, but the mirrors are not especially deep. There is a swipe of darker steel brown toning in the field off the nose tip extending to the left of star 4, a similar stain on the rim above star 7, and a tiny planchet chip on the nose over the nostril, as struck. The reverse is essentially flawless. Our grade is Proof-62. Weight 97.8 grains, which places this piece in Breen's series V. The planchet is thick and there is evidence of a knife rim being smoothed on the reverse, as usual on these Series V strikes. Listed in the Breen/Hanson condition census on page 395 in the Breen encyclopedia. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; second finest behind the preceding example. (PCGS # 35351)

Double Struck Proof

1842 First Restrike Proof Breen 1-B R6+ PCGS graded PR66+ Brown, CAC Approved. Reverse of 1856. Double Struck. Beautiful bluish steel brown and iridescent rose with underlying faded red on both sides. The fields are highly reflective with deep mirrors on both sides. A gem example except for a carbon spot at the top of the outer hair bun and a speck of carbon at the left top of the first T in STATES. Double struck, the second impression rotated 5-10 degrees CCW from the first. Stars 6-13 have shadow stars between them in the fields, and clear evidence of the undertype can be seen on the chin, in the field below, on the nose tip, and over the tip of the coronet. There is some weaker undertype visible on the reverse as well, strongest at the leaves under RIC. This is not your usual chatter strike or machine doubling often seen on early proofs; this is a real double strike. An attractive example of a rare variety, probably unique as a double struck mint error. Our grade is Proof-63+. Weight 77.5 grains, most likely from Breen's Series III, similar to the preceding lot. There is a knife rim from star 3 to star 10 and on the upper two-thirds of the reverse. The fields are highly reflective on the obverse with deep mirrors while the reverse is not quite as reflective, those mirrors moderate to deep. There is a speck of carbon left of star 6 and another on the rim over the left top of the M. Somewhat softly struck in the centers, which is characteristic of the Series VI restrikes. A very attractive piece in spite of the trivial defects. Our grade is Proof-63+. Weight 78.1 grains, Breen's Series VI. PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown, CAC Approved Reverse of 1840 The obverse is bluish steel brown with faded mint red in the protected areas while the reverse is golden light brown The fields are nicely reflective with moderate to deep mirrors on both sides There is a small spot of darker toning close over the inner hair bun and a smaller speck low on the neck over the bust, plus another in the field below the chin. Excellent eye appeal in spite of the trivial defects Our grade is Proof 64. The obverse is plated in the second edition of the Cohen book on page 116 to illustrate the date. Weight 96.7 grains, Breen's Series V struck on thick planchets. A strong horizontal die line extends from the neck into the field to the left. This die line is present on the originals of this date but fades and it not seen on the restrikes. Quite curious, as this is certainly a second restrike. Perhaps the thick planchet produced a stronger strike that helped bring out die elements that were not seen when struck against thinner planchets. The Final Piece to the Ultimate Puzzle

1847 First Restrike Proof Breen 1-B R8. PCGS graded Proof 63 Red & Brown, CAC Approved. Rever of 1856. Mint red fading to light steel brown, about 80% of the red remaining on the obverse and 25% of the r verse showing faded mint color. The mirrors are moderately deep on both sides. The only notable defects are a co lection of microscopic specks at ERICA, a small spot in the field close before the lips, and a vertical nick throu star 4 into the field below. A beautiful half cent with lots of original mint color remaining; could easily be award a higher grade. Our grade is Proof 63. Although the 1847 First Restrike is underappreciated in most price guid because they lump the first and second restrikes into a single "Restrikes" category, it appears to be an extreme ra
ity. Breen called it "the rarest of all die combinations among the proof-only dates, being rarer than the 1831 or 18 with small berries or the 1852 with large berries" (Walter Breen's Encyclopedia of United States Half Cents 179 1857, page 420). Current research seems to support his assertion. While Breen lists three examples, we know fro plate matching that the second piece (Stack's 3/24/1972:530) is the same as Kagin's 11/1/1974:27 offering includ in his third listing. Likewise, Richard T. Coleman, Jr., who has dedicated many years to studying the provenance proof half cents, lists 4 examples but can confirm only two of those exist with certainty. Of course there is alwa a chance more examples of the First Restrike are out there somewhere. But the fact is, after decades of dedicat searching, this was the final piece acquired to finish The Missouri Cabinet, the only complete collection of U.S. H

The fields are highly reflective with deep, very tractive mirrors on both sides. An outstanding example of the Large Berries Reverse proof of 1852, and the La Berries feature is noted on the PCGS label. Breen devotes several paragraphs in his book to a discussion of the "ori nal" and what he calls "Restrike Series VII" strikes of 1852 half cents. He was unable to locate a single example what he called the "original" small berries reverse 1852. Logic dictates that any original strikes of this date, if a were ever struck, would have used the small berries reverse. But we may never know for sure. The current cen includes five examples of the large berry reverse, and one of those is damaged and in very low grade. This piece pears to be the finest of the group. Our grade is Proof 65. Glossy golden tan and light brown. nt state sharpness but the surfaces have been very lightly rnished. No spots, stains, or contact marks, but there are me minor planchet lamination streaks on both sides. The table laminations are a short vertical one at the rim under 4, another at the dentils left of star 7, and several similar es on the reverse passing down slightly to the left of vertical, strongest of these under the ribbon loop. Half cents struck m the Breen 1-B die pair are not rare; it's the planchet that kes this piece so special. An analysis performed subsequent the 1987 Norweb sale shows the planchet is 80% copper, % tin, and 4% silver (reported in the 2003 Judd/Bowers book patterns, pages 65-66). That Judd/Bowers book indicates 2 amples are known struck in this alloy, but an analysis of the cond claimed example apparently has shown that planchet of the normal copper planchet alloy, just discolored. That ves the coin offered here as the only confirmed example of J-155 variety. For more than 75 years this piece was consid-d to be copper-nickel, but Mr. Tettenhorst recognized that strike is considerably sharper than is found on half cents uck on copper-nickel planchets (which are always poorly uck due to the hardness of the nickel alloy). With his curios- piqued, he asked Eric Newman to have the metallic content alyzed. This was accomplished in the science department Washington University in St. Louis, and the results came ck as stated above. Weight 83.6 grains. The rust pit on the I strong. A discussion of this specific example is available on page 451 of the Breen book on Half Cents, and the Norweb catalog expands on what Breen had to say. However, both discussions predate the metallic analysis, and every sale prior to this one has erroneously called it "copper-nickel." Our grade is Proof-55. 1855 C-1 Breen 1-A R5 (as a proof) PCGS graded PR64 Red & Brown. Mellowed mint red with dark bluish steel toning on the highpoints, at least half of the red remaining. The fields are highly reflective with deep mirrors on both sides. The only defect is a very lightly abraded spot in the field under star 7. Quite attractive and an unquestioned proof strike given the needle-sharp details and excellent reflectivity on both sides. Our grade is Proof-63. Weight 83.0 grains. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; 1 finer of the Proof version in 65RB (the preceding lot). (PCGS # 35418)

The fields are satiny rather than reflective. A gem example that offers exceptional luster and eye appeal. Our grade is MS65. 1856 C-1 Breen 1-A (with lump on I in UNITED) R7 (as a proof) PCGS graded PR64+ Red & Brown. Mellowed red with hints of rose on the reverse. Possibly lightly cleaned long ago but the color and eye appeal are excellent. The fields are nicely reflective with moderate mirrors on both sides, but those fields do show faint hairlines. There is some bluish steel toning on the rim at stars 3-4, a very tiny struck-through line in the field midway between star 2 and the chin, and a tiny planchet flake on the rim below the ribbon end. The lump on the I in UNITED is strong. Illustrated in the color plates at the back of the Breen encyclopedia and on page 454 to show the variety, and it is the final piece listed in the census on that page. Our grade is Proof-62. Weight 82.9 grains. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; 2 in 65RB. (PCGS # 1330)

1856 C-1 Breen 1-A (with lump on I in UNITED) R5. PCGS graded MS-64 Red & Brown, CAC Approved. Prooflike. Mint red mellowing to light steel brown, two-thirds of the red remaining. The best identifying marks are a small planchet flake in the field left of star 12, as struck, and a small splash of slightly darker toning at the brow lock. A beautiful example, very attractive and nearly a gem. VEDS, Manley state 2.0 with slightly reflective fields, especially on the obverse. The lump on the I in UNITED is clear. Our grade is MS64. 1856 Breen 1-B (without lump on I in UNITED) Judd-177 Copper Nickel R5 PCGS graded PR64, CAC Approved. Brilliant very light golden tan. The luster and eye appeal are outstanding. The only defects are some microscopic specks of dark toning on the left side of the obverse and a few faint hairlines in the left obverse field, plus a thin planchet lamination on the rim at CA in AMERICA, as struck. The fields are highly reflective with deep mirrors on both sides. While Breen lists two slightly different copper nickel alloys for these pattern strikes (90:10 and 88:12), it is virtually impossible to differentiate between them. In fact, the new Judd/Bowers book on patterns lumps them together as J-177. This example was cataloged as the 90:10 alloy (A & W #216) in the Norweb sale and is listed as such in the Breen census. Our grade is Proof-64. Weight 70.7 grains. The attribution and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 11; 1 in 64+, 4 in 65. (PCGS # 11777)

Unique Specimen Strike 1857

1857 C-1 (Breen 1-A) R8 (as a Specimen Strike) PCGS graded SP65 Red & Brown. Mint red fading to bluish steel, 85% of the original color remaining. The fields are reflective with moderately deep mirrors on the obverse and shallow mirrors on the reverse. There is a tiny nick-like planchet chip in the field off the nose tip, a larger one in the field under the left side of star 8, and a speck of dark toning on the outer edge of the rim between stars 3 and 4 plus another in the dentils under the right side of the 7. The reverse shows strong strike doubling on the legend outside the wreath and on most of the dentils. Walter Breen considered this piece to be a Proof strike, and he listed it as such in his encyclopedia. Stack's sold it as a Proof strike in 1970. However PCGS decided to call it a Specimen strike rather than a proof. But either way the coin is quite remarkable and close to deserving a "Red" designation. Our grade is Proof/Specimen-64+. This is the Breen plate coin for the variety (his encyclopedia, page 460) and is the third example listed in his census of proof strikes. Weight 84.6 grains. The attribution, SPECIMEN status, and Missouri Cabinet provenance are shown on the PCGS label. PCGS population 1; the only Specimen graded. (PCGS # 518084)

The best identifying mark is a tiny spot of lighter blue steel toning left of star 3. Our grade is Proof-64+, very close to gem. Weight 83.8 grains. Breen Color Plate 1857 Breen 1-B (doubled T in CENT) R4. PCGS graded PR65 Red & Brown, CAC Approved. Reverse of 1856. Slightly faded mint red mellowing to bluish steel brown, at least 80% of the original color remaining. The fields are nicely reflective with moderate mirrors on both sides. There are some faint hairlines in the fields that keep this piece from a gem rating. The best identifying marks are some specks of steel toning, the largest of these off the lower right point of star 8. None of these spots is significant and the overall eye appeal is excellent, so impressive that Breen selected this piece for his color plate in the back of his encyclopedia. Our grade is Proof-64.
